The defendant is dissatisfied with his current counsel, and defense counsel has moved to withdraw. The above-named defendant is eligible for appointed counsel pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act, 18 U.S.C. §3006A, and the Amended Criminal Justice Act Plan for the District of Nebraska. After conferring with the defendant,

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) The Federal Public Defender for the District of Nebraska shall provide the court with a draft appointment order (CJA Form 20) for standby counsel to assist the defendant and the court in determining whether new counsel should be appointed to represent the defendant in this case. The court requests appointment of an “A” panel attorney. The draft appointment order shall bear the name and other identifying information of the CJA Panel attorney identified in accordance with the Criminal Justice Act Plan for this district.
- 2) Standby counsel shall enter an appearance promptly upon appointment. Defendant's appointed counsel shall provide all case materials for review by defendant's standby counsel. Standby counsel shall confer with the defendant prior to the scheduled hearing on defense counsel’s motion to withdraw.
